The Suffrage Movement in Glen Park: Backstory to the First Suffrage March in America

2. The National Archives. American’s Founding Documents: Declaration of Independence, a Transcription. Available at Archives.gov.

14. United States Geological Service. Casualties and Damage After the 1906 Earthquake. No date. Available at the USGS.

15. San Francisco Call, October 20, 1907. Glen Park Terrace, the Switzerland of San Francisco [advertisement]. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

16. San Francisco Call, October 15, 1910. Holly Park the Oldest of All Improvement Clubs. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

References: Glen Park Suffrage Backstory (Evelyn Rose). For more information, contact: GlenParkHistory@gmail.com.

30. Los Angeles Herald, September 29, 1889. A Big Crowd Fills the Pavilion to Visit the Fair. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

41. The Record-Union (Sacramento), January 11, 1894. General Notices. Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

42. The Record-Union (Sacramento), March 4, 1897. The Divorce Mill. Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

43. San Francisco Call, January 2, 1905. Merriment, on the Increase, Welcomes the New Year. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

References: Glen Park Suffrage Backstory (Evelyn Rose). For more information, contact: GlenParkHistory@gmail.com.

© 2018 Glen Park Neighborhoods History Project. The GPNHP is fiscally sponsored by Independent Arts & Media, a California non-profit corporation.
44. Crocker-Langley San Francisco Directory, for the Year Ending October, 1907. Available at Archive.org.

46. San Francisco Call, February 9, 1908. Appeals to Save Telegraph Hill. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

60. San Francisco Chronicle, July 9, 1896. Mill Valley’s Great Fete. Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

61. San Francisco Call, July 17, 1896. In the Heart of the Redwoods. Available at California Digital Newspaper Collection.

63. Marin Journal, December 11, 1919. Documents Filed in Recorders Office. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

64. Sausalito News. November 15, 1919. Documents Filed With County Recorder. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

67. San Francisco Call, March 21, 1909. Club Women Plant Arbor Day Trees in Glen Park. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

74. San Francisco Call, August 10, 1908. Club Women Begin Work Upon Programs for Winter. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

77. San Francisco Call, August 3, 1908. Club Life Causes Change in Women’s Point of View. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

79. San Francisco Call, February 10, 1908. Urge Purchase of Glen Park Tract. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

81. San Francisco Call, March 19, 1908. Praises Work of Women. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection

References: Glen Park Suffrage Backstory (Evelyn Rose). For more information, contact: GlenParkHistory@gmail.com.

© 2018 Glen Park Neighborhoods History Project. The GPNHP is fiscally sponsored by Independent Arts & Media, a California non-profit corporation.
89. California Digital Newspaper Collection, March 26, 1906. California Club Asks for Sane Celebration. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.
93. San Francisco Call, August 12, 1911. Club to Escort Rolph to Meeting. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.
94. San Francisco Call, September 19, 1911. Denver Woman Will Conduct Local Battle. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.
96. San Francisco Call, October 13, 1911. Suffrage Victory is Certain. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.
98. San Francisco Call, October 18, 1911. Women Brave Registrar’s Quizzing and Qualify to Vote Under New Privilege. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.
100. San Francisco Call, March 29, 1912. Women Electors Early at Polls. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

References: Glen Park Suffrage Backstory (Evelyn Rose). For more information, contact: GlenParkHistory@gmail.com.

111. San Francisco Chronicle, July 27, 1929. Housewives Act to Force Hogs From City. Available at the San Francisco Public Library (library card required).

112. San Francisco Chronicle, February 15, 1930. Mayor Signs Hog Ranch Ban Resolution. Available at the San Francisco Public Library (library card required).

113. San Francisco Chronicle, July 27, 1932. Obituaries. Available at the San Francisco Public Library Articles and Databases (library card required).

114. San Francisco Chronicle, April 21, 1912. Petitions From Glen Park. Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

115. San Francisco Chronicle, March 24, 1912. “Get Work Done” is Preferable to Argument Regarding, “Who Shall Do It?” Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

116. San Francisco Call, April 2, 1912. Women Discuss Civic Center at Luncheon. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

118. Sacramento Union, July 1, 1913. Coloma Plans to Observe Fourth. Available at the California Digital Newspaper Collection.

120. Death Report, Coroner’s Office, City and County of San Francisco. February 1918. Available at FamilySearch.org.

121. San Francisco Chronicle, February 5, 1918. Obituaries. Available at Newspapers.com (subscription required).

References: Glen Park Suffrage Backstory (Evelyn Rose). For more information, contact: GlenParkHistory@gmail.com.

